BY MAIL: I placed the envelope for collection and mailing at Los Angeles, California. The envelope was mailed with postage fully prepaid via First Class Mail. I am readily familiar with this firm's practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be deposited with the U.S. postal service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Los Angeles, California, in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than 1 day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

BY E-MAIL OR ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION: I caused said document(s) to be transmitted by electronic mail. This service may be based on a court order, Code of Civil Procedure 1010.6, or an agreement among the parties to accept service by email. The name(s) and e-mail addresses of the person(s) served are set forth in the above service list. The document(s) were transmitted by electronic transmission and without error from the following email address: rsantamaria@frandzel.com.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
